THE DISCARDED

Live Pandemic Sessions

In 2020, Canada entered into a lockdown and live music performance for the most part was canceled. The Discarded took this opportunity to finish recording their latest album, "The Getgoes", but also entered Sessions on the River in Fort Erie on Sunday, August 2, 2020 to record three live sets, which were filmed and released in November, December of 2020 and January of 2021.

They called the sets "The Pandemic Sessions." The first set was a selection of songs from their first two albums: the self-titled 2017, "The Discarded" and their 2018 second album "Manifesto." The second set consisted of songs from their 2019 EP "Not From This Town" and their 2019 album, "Sound Check and Fury." Their third set was entirely unreleased material, some from their recording "The Getgoes" and the rest are brand new songs that have yet to be recorded. This live album is a selection of fifteen songs from the thirty-seven songs performed that day from the three sets. Seven of the songs are from the unrecorded/unreleased third set, so you'll have something new. You can subscribe to The Discarded's YouTube channel to see all three sets in their entirety or a fourth set of just this album's songs.
